About SUNSGLOW

SUNSGLOW, Global Training in the Rule of Law, was founded in 1998 with a universal mission. It is "Training for Legal and Judicial Reform, Respect for Human Rights and the Enhancement of Good Governance across National Borders, Time Zones, and Language Barriers". As a non-profit, it is supported by voluntary contributions, and carries out its mission through a distinguished Board of Trustees, International Advisors, and Associates. Beyond America, its only outreach is the Toronto Centre. In view of the present threats to international security and stability, SUNSGLOW is now refocusing on the protection of minorities in the Arab and Muslim regions. The present event is one example of this new focus. Please also check our website at www.sunsglow.com.
